The warmth of friendship,
The harried rush to class,
The swamped feeling of exam time,
A quiet moment alone;

The elation of a winning football team,
The Monday "blues" five days a week,
The agony and ecstasy of learning,
A sense of accomplishment;

This is Honaker High School - an everchanging kaleidoscope of moods and emotions, presently passing but never forgotten.

Torch '69 is completed. The long, fretful hours of work and worry are over. The idea has at last become reality. We find ourselves pausing to murmur incredulously, "It's over." We, the Seniors, have especially wanted Torch '69 to be the best yet, for this book is part of the legacy we leave behind at H.H.S. Robert Burns once said that pleasures are like the snowfall in a river, "a moment white" - then gone forever. In like manner, we know that youth exists from spring to spring, and to everything there is a time. Now is the time for reflection, a time for momentarily looking back, a quiet moment for . . .

Honaker Marching Band

The Tiger Band under the direction of William C. Coburn consists of 50 members. The band participated in many activities throughout the year. The band received many invitations to parades, all of which were not accepted. The parade through Bristol followed by competition at Southeastern Band Festival was one of the many highlights of the year. The band was led by Drum Major, Miss Dana Dye. The Majorettes added colorful attractions to the band.

This Is Our Band???

Get it right this time, or Bugle Bailey will clout you one!

The Sounds of Silence!

Rear march? Who said rear march? Stop those majorettes! ("NO!" says Sykes.)

She's an alto-sax player???

This IS our band!

Dedication Jeanne Howard

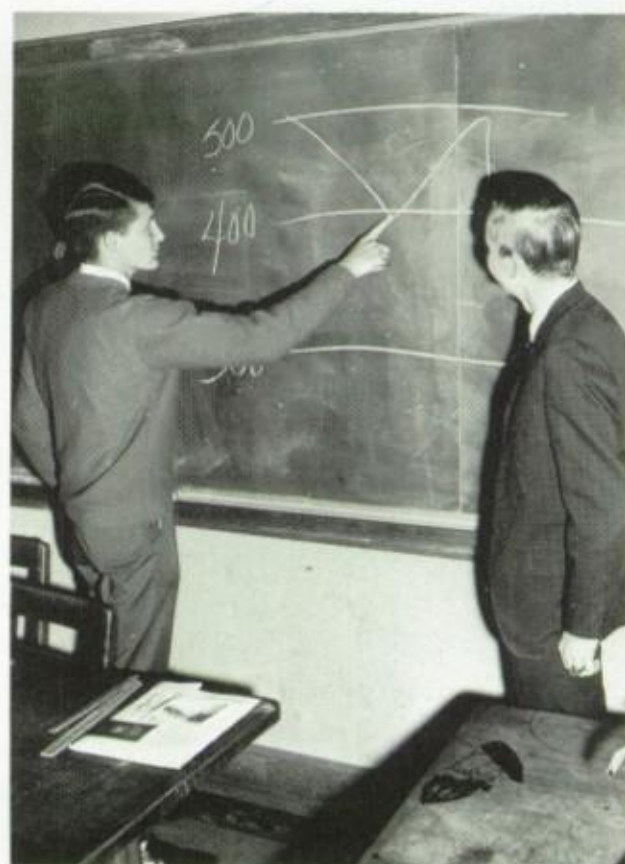

Almost everything has a mainspring which correlates the rough parts and aids the functioning of other component parts. Honaker High School has just such a mainspring in the person of Jeanne Howard. Jeanne is a human dynamo, a Girl Friday, a Jill-of-all Trades, a walking miracle who sometimes runs and jumps. Her smile is always there as she perks up a bad day with a few choice words of characteristic wisdom. Unbelievable as it may sound, she is always around with help when we need her. This dedication, humble as it may be, is our way of voicing our appreciation. To paraphrase a not-too-recent song, "This is Dedicated to the One We Love."

When Seniors Were Young

Is this the way to pose?

It's not fair -- We're the only ones without hair !!

I love my dolly.

Nobody told me not to pick the flower.

I didn't ask to have this old picture taken!!

The sun is just right for a good tan.

That must be Santa Claus coming!

I'll race you to the end of the yard.

I've got to get Kitty off the chair before Mama comes!

He's my hero!

I don't care about her --go ahead and take my picture!

Now Linda, you are supposed to smile!!

Just give me a minute and I'll smile!!

We were taking a walk and he lost his shoe!

Open up. This will make you grow big and strong.

Alright--DRAW!

I think I found it!!

Cheese!!

If you had got a spanking like this, you would be sitting on a pillow too!

Wonder if I could hide here?

Did I have to have my picture made with him?

HELP! I'm choking!

It's my ball and you can't play with it.

I'll lose my temper with that man!!

The barefoot girl.

I'm so depressed.

Don't fence me
in!

I can't wait to try one of these candles!

I don't think I can make it another step!

I'll teach you to
